Yarrow Point Stop Improvements

The Yarrow Point Stop Improvements project provides upgrades to the westbound freeway stop on SR-520 at 92nd Avenue N.E. in Yarrow Point. Improvements include extending the traffic safety barrier, improving pedestrian lighting, adding drainage and an accessible bus pad with tactile pavers.

Mode
Bus

Highlights
Construction complete: July 2006

Location: the westbound freeway stop on SR-520 at 92nd Avenue NE

Budget: $150,000

Partners: Sound Transit, Town of Yarrow Point, King County Metro Transit, WA State Department of Transportation

Consultants & contractors
Preliminary engineering, environmental documentation and final design: David Evans and Associates Inc.
Construction management: King County Metro Transit